

1. All lambs entered in the market classes will be eligible for the contest. This means that your market lamb can be entered both in market and sheep carcass contest.
2. All lambs will be evaluated together with no distinction between black faces, speckled face, or white faced lambs.
3. When your lambs are weighed at County Fair, each exhibitor will select one of their best lambs registered in the spring. The exhibitor will take their selected lambs to the designated area. The ear tag will be verified and the weight slips will be recorded and the official entry will be completed.
4. The lamb will be processed and the ultrasound data will be entered and processed by the computer software.

YOUTH POULTRY

Dept: CON-Sect: 16

Superintendents: LaDonna Foley

Youth may show 3 animals in each class.

POULTRY ARRIVAL:

Cages will be assigned prior to arrival based on check-in calls. Both 4-H and FFA need to call in or email their final poultry classes before August 6th. Please call the extension office for check-in call in procedures. Any poultry not checked in during the scheduled times will not be exhibited. Exhibitors can do cage and carry if they choose. If they choose cage and carry, they need to bring their own cages for day of show. No more than 3 entries per class will be allowed.

Check-in will be Monday, August 8th from 1-5 PM only. All birds must pass the health inspection before entering the poultry barn. Cage and carry birds will be inspected the morning of the show. Dr. Emerich may ask for permission to take a mouth swab from random birds to test for Avian Influenza.

Check out will be August 13th after 3 PM or you must obtain an early release form from the Fair Board office.

Poultry Rules

1. All birds must pass the vet check before they are put into show cages.
2. Animals unable to move normally, have bare backs, or appear unthrifty will not be allowed at the fair. The fair veterinarian has final say if an animal will be allowed on fair grounds.
3. Birds should be in adult plumage and/or at least 4 months old.
4. Market pen birds must be between 50 and 90 days of age.
5. Cage and Carry may be used for poultry unable to stay at the fair. Exhibitors must provide their own cage to show in. Birds in cage and carry must be in place prior to 8 am on show day and removed from the fair before 8 pm on show day. Cage and carry birds must pass a health inspection by either a show supervisor or a fair veterinarian.
6. Only three entries per class will be allowed.

7. All poultry must be called in to the Superintendent prior to bringing them to the Fair.
8. All poultry except market animals must be part of the regular project prior to June 1.
9. No poultry will be on the grounds that are not entered in a class.
10. Any birds placed in cages not assigned will not be judged.
11. Poultry will be taken care of by the exhibitor. Parents will be able to help only with initial set up and removal. Feed and water must be available at all times. Animals not taken care of in an appropriate manner will be excused from the grounds and all prize money will be forfeited.
12. Birds maybe entered in only one class, not including showmanship.
13. A trio should consist of one male and two females of approximately the same age.
14. All birds must be able to be handled by the judge. Birds not able to be handled will be disqualified.
