

KIWANIS LIVESTOCK SALE

1. The Kiwanis Sale will consist of the following categories: Market Beef, Market Swine, Market Sheep, Market Goats, and Market Poultry. Any member may sell up to 2 animals, but they must represent different categories as outlined above. The sale will consist of 10 market beef, 10 market swine, 10 market sheep, 2 market goats and 4 market birds. In the beef, swine, and sheep categories, the Champion and reserve Champion in each of five weight divisions will be included in the sale. The Champion and Reserve Champion Market Goats will be included in the sale. The Champion Market Pen of 3 Broilers/Fryers, Champion Market Turkey, Champion Market Duck, and Champion Market Goose (less than 26 weeks) will be included in the sale.
2. The first duplication follows the Champion, the second duplication will follow the Reserve champion, and the other duplications will start with the heaviest division and move in order to the lightweight division. However, no fourth place division animals will sell before the third place division animals are sold. If the Champions and Reserve Champions come from that same division, only the first duplication will come from that division. The judge will determine division placing from class winners.
3. In situations where a member qualifies more than one animal per category, the following duplication process will be used: In divisions with more than one class, all 1st and 2nd place class winners will come together and be placed within the division. This division placing will then be used to determine duplicates for the sale. Sale Order: First duplication follows the champion; second duplication will follow the reserve champion. Other duplications will start with the heaviest division and move in order to lightweight division, however, no fourth-place animals will sell until all third-place animals are sold. If Champions and Reserve Champions come from the same division, only the first duplication will come from that division.
4. FFA Exhibitors will complete Kiwanis sale forms immediately following the selection of the overall champions of each market show.
5. Members qualifying more than 1 animal per category are required to sell the highest placing animal. Overall Champions and Overall Reserve Champions will be sold before Division Champions and Division Reserve Champions. Division Champions will be sold before Reserve Division Champions.

THIS IS A MARKET ANIMAL SHOW AND TERMINAL SALE! NO TRADING OR SUBSTITUTION OF DIFFERENT ANIMALS AFTER THE SALE WILL BE ALLOWED. ALL ELIGIBLE, HIGHEST PLACING ANIMALS WILL SELL.
