

2011 LARAMIE COUNTY FAIR AMBASSADORS

The Fair Ambassador program started a few years ago and is open to youth who participate in 4-H or FFA and have been involved in the Laramie County Fair.

Youth apply and then are interviewed by a committee before being chosen to represent the Fair. Each Ambassador serves for a year promoting the Fair and its activities.

The Ambassadors receive a college scholarship from the Fair for all their hard work. The Ambassadors will be visiting schools, clubs and community organizations throughout the next couple months promoting the fair.

If you are interested in having the Ambassadors visit your organization please call the fair office 637-4534.

Shelby Page is currently a senior at Burns High School. She enjoys working outside and training her horses. She has been involved in the 4-H program for 9 years and has been active in those years showing pigs, sheep, beef, poultry, and horses. She has also exhibited many indoor projects such as leather, woodworking, and rope craft. After graduating from high school she will be attending the University of Wyoming and getting a Bachelor's degree in Ag Business.

A resident of Pine Bluffs, Allie Leitza, is the daughter of Beth Steege and Dave Leitza. She is currently attending Casper College to receive an Associate's Degree in Agribusiness. Upon acquiring her degree there she plans to transfer to a university to study Ag Communications or Agricultural Education. Allie is a member of the Pine Bluffs FFA Chapter and has shown hogs and lambs in the Laramie County Fair. She is also a member of the Casper College Ag Club, as well a member of the Casper College Public Relations Team.

Olivia Sanchez is the daughter of Michael Sanchez and Monique Schwartz of Burns, Wyoming. She is a senior at Central High School. She is a very active member of the High Plains FFA Chapter and has been an active 4-H member for 10 years. She has shown market swine for ten years and began showing poultry six years ago. Olivia will graduate this May and will attend Eastern Wyoming College working towards an Associate's of Art degree. She will then further her education at the University of Wyoming to graduate with a Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education.

Kelley Fisher, daughter of James Fisher and Julie Resheske, is 17 years old and will be a senior this fall at Central. She has been in 4-H for eight years showing horses, dogs, rabbits, and sheep. She has also participated with projects in woodworking and ropecraft, and competed on the horse judging team. She's also been in FFA since seventh grade and is involved in many other extracurricular activities including indoor track the varsity soccer team for Cheyenne Central. She is also actively involved in Cheyenne Young Life, as well as Fellowship of Christian Athletes.
